Be a Buddy, Not a Bully!

January 17-20, 2017

We will kick off our 2017 No Place for Hate campaign by showing how we can “Be a Buddy, Not a Bully!” We will encourage building new friendships and positive social interactions. We are dedicated to following the Oaks Vision “To foster a safe, positive environment where students, families and community members are accepted. Oaks Elementary is committed to developing an engaging community that inspires learning.” We will encourage students, teachers and staff members to dress up each day to support Oaks Elementary being an anti-bullying school!

- Monday, January 16: No School
- Team up Tuesday, January 17: “United we stand up and team up against bullying.” Pledge with your child to stand up and speak out against bullying.
  - Wear Blue Clothing
- Wacky Wednesday, January 18: “Inside Out Day- Show that you are a good friend inside and out.” Share with your child on the characteristics of a good friend
  - Wear clothing inside out.
- Thankful Thursday, January 19: “Lasso a buddy and say howdy. Make a new friend today.” Talk with your child on how to make a new friend.
  - Wear western clothing or dress like a cowboy or cowgirl.
  - OAKS PTA sponsors the Dennis Lee assembly on Bullying.
- Friendly Fun Friday, January 20: “Polka Dot and Stripes Day!”
  - Wear Crazy fun Polka Dots or stripes clothing or socks to show that you’re a Buddy, Not a Bully!

Along with the dress up days, we will have important messages from our NPFH student members each day on the announcements!

“Be a Buddy, NOT a Bully!”
